Yachtstock, Inc. is a 501(c)3 non-profit focused on aiding families facing financial struggles due to a child's chronic health issues. We have donated hundreds of thousands for these families and have a longstanding partnership with Shriners Children's Hospital. We are seeking community support for our charity event through donations for our raffle tent, which plays a crucial role in funding our mission. Your contribution, whether a basket, gift certificate, event tickets, or a specific item, would be greatly appreciated. Your support helps us make a positive impact on our communities.
